

Kolloquium SoSe 2022

Institute for African Studies and Egyptology
via ZOOM Wednesday 18:00h

ARCHAEOLOGY AND HERITAGE IN THE GLOBAL SOUTH: DECOLONIZING THEORY AND PRACTICE

LECTURES

Wednesday, 18:00-19:30 (Berlin time)

ONLINE

<https://uni-koeln.zoom.us/j/99130219644?pwd=ekVZUohybDB2NHd2M3R6bXJldVh6dz09>

MEETING-ID

991 3021 9644

PASSWORD

968949

ORG.

Richard Bussmann & M. Dores Cruz

April 20

Chris DeCorse, Syracuse University
West Africa's Vanishing Past: Development, Antiquities, and the Destruction of the Archaeological Record

May 4

Lesley Machiridza, Great Zimbabwe University
Religion, Rightsholders and "New Actors": Power Dynamics and Management Challenges at the Great Zimbabwe World Heritage Site

May 18 (Hybrid session)

A. Rashid Mamo (Syria), I. Ibrahim (Syria), A. el-Kassam (Syria) and Noor Agha Noori (Afghanistan)

Archaeology in Time of War: Round-table Discussion

Round table discussion held in 105 Hörsaal F (Hörsaalgebäude). It can also be followed online via the above Zoom link

June 1

Lucio Menezes Ferreira, Universidade Federal de Pelotas
Archaeology Also Dances: African Diaspora and Spiritual Practices at the Beef Jerky Plantations in Pelotas, Southern Brazil

June 15

Badiha Nahhass, Université Mohamed V, Rabat

The Political and Social Uses of the Heritage in the Rif (Morocco)

June 29

Elgidius B. Ichumbaki, University of Dar es Salaam

Do Not Engage, Be Engaged: A Strategy to Decolonize Research Practice in Africa

July 13

Wendy Doyon, Ph.D., University of Pennsylvania

The Excavation Craft of Quft (Upper Egypt) as Intangible Cultural Heritage: The Rise and Decline of an Archaeological Commodity in Rural Egypt